Numb. 1507

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday April 26. to Thursday April 29. 1680.

Cadiz, April 16.

THE Charles Galley is newly arrived here from Tangier, and brings an account that the Moors were returned before that place; That by the working of their Trenches they seemed to design to attack Charles-Fort, and Henrietta-Fort, which were very well provided with men and all things necessary for their Defence. And that the Adventure Frigat was Engaged with an Algierine so close that they fired their small Shot, and that another Frigate, being clean and a good Sailer, was making up to them, and that it was not doubted but they would take the Algierine.

Copenhagen, April 20. On Thursday the Lord Bodmin, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of England, arrived here, and this Afternoon had a private Audience of the King, who told him, he would appoint Commissioners to treat with him concerning a defensive Alliance, from whence may be concluded, That the Reports which have been spread abroad of this Kings having entred into a strict Engagement with France, are without any ground.

Berlin, April 20 Our Elector has been for some days retired at his house at Postdam, which is the reason Sir Robert Southwel has not yet had an Audience, which is appointed him on Wednesday next. In the mean time there is great appearance that Sir Robert will have a good success in his Negotiation here, his Electoral Highness having declared, That he will not depart from the common Interests of the Empire.

Cologne April 26. From Trier we have an account that several French Batallions were come to Sarbruck, and were to continue their march from thence to Paltsburg, and that they would be followed in few days by others. That the Intendant of Nancy had received Orders from France to go to St. Diez and other places to view the ways, and if there was occasion, to have them repaired, for the more easy and convenient Marching of the Artillery.

Paris, May 4. The 15th Instant the Court removes to Fontainbleau, and in the beginning of July the King wil begin his great Progress, in which it's said he will be attended by a good number of Troops. The second Instant the Dauphin, the Prince of Conti, the Prince de la Roche-Sur-Yon, and after them the Count d' Armagnac, the Count de Brione, the Duke de Villeroy, the Duke de la Tremoille, the Prince d' Harcourt, the Duke de Gramont, the Count de Marsan, the Marquis d' Angeau, and the Duke de Vendosme run at the Ring in the presence of the King, Queen, and Dauphiness, and the Duke de Vendosme won the Prize, which was a Jewel worth 1000 Pistols, given by the King: From Rome we have an account that our Galleys which Sailed last from Marseilles were arrived at Civita Vecchia.

Plimouth, April 23. This Evening sailed the Phœnix, with the Ships under her Convoy, for Bilboa. The Dartmouth is gone again to Cruise to the Westward.

London, April 27. A Searcher of the Custom-House coming this day into Gutter-Lane, near Cheapside, with two Files of Musketeers under the Command of a Serjeant, to search for Prohibited Goods, made a great uproar, which occasioned the tumultuary meeting of two or three hundred People; But my Lord Mayor having notice of it, came immediately thither, dispersed the People, and Ordered the Serjeant and Searcher, with the Soldiers, to attend the Court of Aldermen, where it appearing that their Carriage had been very unbecoming, they were Committed to Newgate.

Whitehall, April 26. This day Sir Leoline Jenkins was Sworn one of His Majesties Principal Secretaries of State, and received the Seals, which Henry Coventry Esq; then delivered up to His Majesty.

The Clerk of the Council and Mr. Warnup having given the Board an account of the Examinations they had taken at the places where Richard Kavennach had, upon his first Examination, said he was that day and night when Mr. Arnold was assaulted, which did not agree with what he then said, and other informations having been given, which do very much encrease the suspicion upon the said Kavennach, their Lordships directed, he should be committed to Newgate.

This Afternoon His Majesty came to Town from Windsor, and to morrow goes for Newmarket, from whence His Majesty purposes to return on Friday.

Whitehall, April 26. The Lord Shandois having humbly acquainted the King, That the Turkey Company had made choice of him, and intended to recommend him to His Majesty to be sent as Ambassador to Constantinople, and praying His Majesties approbation, His Majesty was pleased to replie, That he having Countenanced, and been engaged in the business of the Petition about the Parliament (which His Majesty looked upon as deragatory to His Prerogative, and tending to Sedition) His Majesty could not think him so fit for His Favour. Whereupon his Lordship having desired to be called into the Committee of Forreign Intelligence this Evening, did there humbly acknowledge to His Majesty his Fault in having been concerned in the said Petition, That he was drawn in and